I hereby consent to participation by my child, or individual under my guardianship, in the activity described above. I understand that this activity may take place away from the Parish grounds and that my child will be under the supervision of the CYO Athletic Coordinator/Volunteers during the activity. I acknowledge that CYO coaches or representatives are not responsible for transportation.

I fully recognize and understand that sports and recreation activities involve an element of risk of bodily injury. I will assume and accept those risks and hazards, which are incidental to such participation. My child has no special medical condition, except those listed above, and is fit for strenuous physical activity. In consideration for the opportunity for my child to participate, should such risk or hazard cause illness or injury to my child, I do hereby release, absolve, and agree to hold harmless the Corporation of the Catholic Archbishop of Seattle, St. Francis of Assisi Parish, its school, its agents, employees, officers, and the chaperones, leaders, organizer, coaches, volunteers, and sponsors, and those individuals transporting my child to and from the above undertaking. Should such entities be guilty of gross negligence, which leads to serious illness, injury, or death of my child, it is recognized that I have the right to pursue legal redress. However, third parties, e.g., the place at which the activity occurs, will be responsible for their own negligence and liability.

I hereby authorize medical/dental care and treatment for my child, as necessary, while under the supervision of the CYO sports program representative.

I will return all equipment and team uniforms at the end of the season in good condition, or I will provide St. Francis CYO with the funds to replace said equipment/uniforms.

Archdiocese of Seattle CYO Code of Conduct for Sports Participation

The Catholic Youth Organization is a program that, through the vehicle of sports, aids youth to become better Catholics and Christians and collaborate with other athletes throughout the Archdiocese. CYO collaborates with other programs including Athletes for a Better World to provide the best educational opportunities for all involved. It is with these goals in mind that we present the following agreement.

Because I have the opportunity and responsibility to make a difference in the lives of others, I commit to the following Code for Living. I will take responsibility and appropriate actions when I fail to live up to this code.

As an individual:

- I will try to develop my skills to the best of my ability and to give my best effort in practice and competition.
- I will compete within the spirit and letter of the rules of my sport.
- I will respect the dignity of every human being, and will not be abusive or dehumanizing of anyone either as an athlete or as a fan.

As a member of a team:

- I will place team goals ahead of personal goals.
- I will be a positive influence on the relationships on the team.
- I will follow the team rules established by the coach.

As a member of society:

- I will display caring and honorable behavior off the field and be a positive influence in my community and world.
- I will give of my time, skills, and money as I am able for the betterment of my community and world.

Remember (all spectators):

- That the players are children and are playing for their enjoyment, not yours.
To remain seated in the spectator area during all contests.
- To respect decisions made by contest officials.
- Be a role model positively supporting teams and not by shouting instructions or criticism to the players, coaches, or officials. Please do not coach from the stands!
- Make no derogatory comments or gestures to players, coaches, or fans of your own or the other team.
- Remember that the adults set the example for the behavior of their team's fans. If you see negative behavior, please try to appeal to their conscience at the appropriate time.
- Any spectator who interferes with the conduct of a CYO activity, at the discretion of the spectator's parish, league, or the Archdiocese of Seattle, be barred from attendance at subsequent CYO athletic activities.
